Keith McMillan
'Danny'
Acrylic
93cm
2012

About the Artist

Keith McMillan was born in Canberra, Australia in 1965 and joined the L'Arche Genesaret community in June 1994.

Keith loves painting and enjoys attending "Hands On" art studio in Canberra every week. Over the years Keith has produced many paintings, specialising in brightly coloured abstract acrylics. Keith's painting "Danny" was painted in 2012 as part of the "Circles" Art Exhibition by members of the L'Arche Genesaret community at the Australian National University School of Art. "Danny" celebrates Keith's long-standing friendship with Danny, with whom he shares a home, and captures Danny's energy and lively personality. Keith painted on to a discarded round table top and in doing this he explored a "recycling" theme for the Circles Art Exhibition. The painting was sold on the first night of the exhibition.

Contact: http://www.larche.org.au/larche-communities/canberra

Andrew Pemberton
'Reef Fish', Acrylic on Canvas, 92 x 61.5 cm, 2011

About the Artist

Andrew Pemberton is 43 years old. He has been painting for almost 20 years, developing his work in his "disabled Art Classes." His work has been published in a poetry book, shown in public exhibitions, and printed on greeting cards. He has been a member of L'Arche Brisbane since its foundation and before. He is currently a formal member as a 'friend' of L'Arche Brisbane.

Contact: http://larchebrisbane.blogspot.ca   ©L'Arche International/Andrew Pemberton